A Safe Haven, L.L.C. Kicks Off 2nd Annual Banquet Theme with "A Safe Haven's Commitment to Criminal Justice"

Chicago, IL November 1, 2004—A Safe Haven, L.L.C. kicked off its 2nd Annual Banquet with a successful evening on October 30, 2004. The event was a gathering that included hundreds of friends, alumni, and partners of A Safe Haven, L.L.C. Influential leaders and advocates of A Safe Haven, L.L.C. in the field of treatment, corrections, and government also attended the banquet and awards ceremony.

The occasion served as an eventful evening that gave A Safe Haven L.L.C. an opportunity to recognize individuals that through their hard work and dedication they are making a difference in our Communities. It is through their combined strength and involvement that those individuals afflicted with the diseases of addiction will gain access to the continuum of care necessary to turn their lives around.

The 2004 Award Winners were as follows:

Family Guidance Centers for their "Commitment to Criminal Justice and the RRP Model and its success in serving Criminal Justice Clients".

TASC for their "Commitment to Criminal Justice and the RRP Model and its success in serving Criminal Justice Clients".

Howard Robinson (IDOC, PRU) "In recognition of your efforts in bridging the gap between Corrections and Recovery Home Providers, making it a more effective Partnership".

Congressman Danny K. Davis "In recognition of your tireless efforts and continued work for the Criminal Justice Clientele in the State of Illinois"

A Safe Haven L.L.C. is grateful to all of the Award Recipients and honored by Keynote Speakers Congressman Danny Davis and Michael D. Rothwell, Warden of Sheridan Correctional Center. A Safe Haven L.L.C was also graced with surprise testimonials from Alderman Joe Moore (49th Ward), for A Safe Haven's work in his Ward and a successful graduate of the RRP model who shared her experience from Corrections to employment. A Safe Haven L.L.C. once again congratulates all of the Award Recipients for their Commitment to Criminal Justice.
