A SAFE HAVEN, L.L.C. featured speaker at the Black Caucus event in Washington D.C. “Continuum of Care in Treatment”

Washington, D.C. September 11, 2004—A Safe Haven L.L.C. a leading provider of recovery home services was invited to speak by Congressman Danny Davis at the 34th Annual Congressional Black Caucus event. In recognition of the tremendous work done in his Congressional District by A Safe Haven with the issue of treatment, Skip Land, COO of A Safe Haven was asked to speak at the forum on Ex-Offender Re-Entry Issues. He spoke on the issue of the “Continuum of Care in Treatment”. A Safe Haven was also invited to serve and participate on a couple of panels to discuss the issues of Housing and Re-Entry into the Community after having served terms and received treatment from Corrections. A Safe Haven has served in this market with marked success, since 1999 having served over 5,500 ex-offenders.

A Safe Haven L.L.C. has been the subject of a past study and the recipient of many accolades by leaders in the field and leaders in government for their vision, unique model and approach to recovery that together with the treatment community and faith based programs achieves the highest success rates in recovery.

The event was a huge success as Illinois Congressman Danny Davis gathered some of the most innovative, leaders on the issue of Ex-Offender Re-Entry into the Community. A Safe Haven was proud to be a participant in this significant event and share with the professionals in attendance, that included Federal, State and Local government agencies, and representatives from Congress from around the country, the successes A Safe Haven has had in the area of Recovery and Housing.
